

90 Cooper LAIDLEY QLD

3  1  2

Unique and interesting this log cabin style home on 1012m² of level land. This wonderful home offer 3 bedrooms upstairs with views to the mountain ranges to the south west and downstairs there is a timber kitchen and large open plan living area with timber features, raked ceilings and timber flooring. The area is air conditioned but has the added bonus of a pot belly stove creating a warm alpine feel.

The block is 1012m², fully fenced and has a covered bbq area at the rear of the home and a verandah the full length at the front. Car accommodation is a double lock up colorbond shed and the property is tidy and presentable and will appeal to the buyer looking for something a little different.

The owners have committed elsewhere and are very keen
