

10 Kirkwood Street Margate QLD

2  1  1

This charming 2-bedroom cottage built in the 1950's on steel stumps is sure to impress someone searching for an opportunity to add value and reap the rewards.

In need of some fresh paint and new carpets, this property could be just what you are looking for.

Built to withstand the test of time, this solid hardwood home features original timber floorboards under the existing floor coverings and high ceilings throughout.

Front access to the home is provided via the sunroom/second living area which leads to the generously proportioned lounge/dining area. The 2 large bedrooms are spacious and welcoming, and the combined bathroom and toilet are both functional and roomy.
